Overview

A masterclass in Greco-Roman history, European-style architecture, and coastal fine dining, tailored for clients who want to pair Cairo's grand minarets with the seaside elegance of Alexandria and a boutique sailing sector on the upper Nile. The crowning highlight is a dawn helicopter or balloon loop over the Alexandria coastline, landing for a champagne brunch in the gardens of Montaza Palace.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Private architectural walks through Coptic Cairo and the 12th-century Citadel of Saladin
- Check-in to the ultra-luxury Four Seasons Hotel Alexandria at San Stefano with sweeping Mediterranean views
- Multi-course seafood dinner served under the stars on a private pier overlooking the Mediterranean
- Private architecture walk past 19th-century European facades on Mohamed Ali Street
- Sundowner of premium Egyptian wines on Al-Azhar Hill, watching sunset cast golden light over Cairo's thousand minarets
- Private after-hours tour of the underground Roman Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa — a fusion of Egyptian, Greek and Roman art
- Dawn helicopter or balloon loop over the Alexandria coastline, landing for champagne brunch in the gardens of Montaza Palace
- Boutique Nile cruise aboard the Mövenpick Royal Lily through Luxor, Edfu and Aswan

Greco-Roman history, Mediterranean coastline, and a boutique Nile cruise

The Itinerary

01

Day 1 | Arrival in the Grand Capital

VIP airport assistance at Cairo International Airport, then a private guide transfer to The Fairmont Nile City or The Mena House, the latter offering unparalleled Pyramid views. If arriving before 4:00 PM, a private guided tour of Islamic Cairo and the Mosque of Muhammad Ali. The day culminates in an intimate fine-dining welcome dinner where you meet your private Egyptologist guide for a briefing on the journey ahead.

CAIRO

Day 2 | Coptic & Islamic Cairo Architecture

You explore the Hanging Church and the nearby Ben Ezra Synagogue in Coptic Cairo, then visit the Citadel of Saladin and the alabaster Mosque of Muhammad Ali with its panoramic city views. In the afternoon, you wander through the historic Khan El Khalili Bazaar. In the late afternoon, premium Egyptian wines are served from a private terrace on Al-Azhar Hill, watching sunset cast golden light over Cairo's thousand minarets.

- The Fairmont Nile City
- Breakfast, Dinner

03

ALEXANDRIA

Day 3 | Journey to the Mediterranean Coast

A smooth 2.5-hour drive through the fertile Nile Delta to the historic seaside city of Alexandria, founded by Alexander the Great in 331 BC. You check into the ultra-luxury Four Seasons Hotel Alexandria at San Stefano, with sweeping Mediterranean views. The afternoon is yours to relax and enjoy the hotel's amenities. Dinner features fresh Mediterranean seafood.
