Overview

Designed for luxury travellers who want to explore the modern skyline and ancient limestone temples of Malaysia's capital before escaping to the pristine coral atolls of the East Coast. This itinerary connects the iconic Petronas Twin Towers and the monumental Batu Caves with the untouched coral gardens of Redang Marine Park and the hidden mangrove lagoons of the Setiu Wetlands. A private charter flight from Subang Airport and luxury yacht transfer deliver guests to Redang Island — one of Malaysia's finest marine sanctuaries. High-end highlights include a private excursion to the hidden Setiu Wetlands, a guided reef-walk at low tide, and an exclusive cultural encounter with Terengganu master weavers creating Songket silk with real gold threads.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Petronas Twin Towers double-decker Skybridge at 170 metres: suspended between two of Asia's most iconic glass-and-steel towers
- Rooftop helipad lounge sundowner: hand-crafted cocktails watching the Kuala Lumpur skyline transform as the sun drops behind the towers
- Redang Marine Park: world-class snorkelling with giant green sea turtles and shimmering schools of neon damsels in pristine waters
- Pulau Lima outer reef drop-off: dramatic deep-water snorkel along one of Malaysia's finest East Coast underwater walls
- Batu Caves: 272 vibrant colourful steps to the monumental 42-metre-high golden statue of Lord Murugan at the limestone entrance
- Private charter flight and luxury yacht to Redang Island: one of Malaysia's finest marine sanctuaries with untouched coral and sea turtles
- Setiu Wetlands hidden gem: crimson mangrove roots, calm lagoons, river terrapins, and an elevated wooden platform breakfast
- Terengganu Songket silk private masterclass: hand-loomed royal fabric with real gold threads and ancient brasssmith wax-moulding
