Overview

A masterclass in coastal topography, maritime history, and contemporary art — designed for clients who want a purely coastal and cultural Moroccan experience. This route connects the European-influenced harbour of Tangier and the famous Blue City of Chefchaouen with Morocco's elegant capital Rabat and the breezy Atlantic artist-haven of Essaouira. Guests look forward to private yacht sails past the Strait of Gibraltar, crowd-free walks through blue-washed Andalusian façades, fresh Atlantic seafood, a dawn balloon over the coastline, and a private hypnotic performance by Gnaoua master musicians in Essaouira.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Private luxury yacht sail where the Mediterranean meets the Atlantic at the Strait of Gibraltar, the coast of Spain visible on the horizon
- Chefchaouen Blue City private crowd-free walk with an architectural historian through blue-washed 15th-century Andalusian alleyways
- Dawn balloon or helicopter over the Atlantic coastline — ancient fortresses, lagoons, and palace gardens from above
- Essaouira thuya wood-carving workshops and vibrant contemporary art galleries showcasing coastal-inspired local painters
- Cape Spartel clifftop sundowner with premium Moroccan MCC sparkling wine watching the sun set over the Atlantic
- Hassan Tower and Kasbah of the Udayas in Rabat — 12th-century monuments with a private seafood bonfire dinner over the Bou Regreg
- Champagne brunch in the terraced gardens of a historic coastal palace, surrounded by orange blossom and ocean sounds
- Exclusive Gnaoua master musician private performance — hypnotic guembri, castanets, and spiritual Afro-Moroccan music

The Itinerary

01

TANGIER

Day 1 | Arrival in Tangier — Gateway to Africa

VIP assistance at Tangier Ibn Battouta Airport. Private transfer to El Minzah Hotel — a luxury boutique estate perched on a hilltop overlooking the Mediterranean harbour. Early arrivals enjoy a private guided city tour: the historic Kasbah of Tangier with views of the Strait of Gibraltar, and the Grand Socco — the vibrant market square that has been the heart of the city for centuries. Welcome dinner overlooking the Mediterranean.

02

TANGIER

Day 2 | Kasbah, Caves of Hercules & Strait of Gibraltar Yacht

Morning exploration of the Kasbah of Tangier and the dramatic Caves of Hercules — a natural Roman-era grotto where legend holds Hercules rested after his twelve labours. Afternoon: private luxury yacht sail where the Mediterranean meets the Atlantic at the Strait of Gibraltar, the coast of Spain visible on the horizon. Late afternoon: premium Moroccan MCC sparkling wine from a private clifftop setup at Cape Spartel watching the sunset over the Atlantic.

- El Minzah Hotel »
- Breakfast, Dinner

03

CHEFCHAOUEN

Day 3 | The Blue Pearl — Chefchaouen Private Architectural Walk

Smooth drive through the Rif Mountains to Chefchaouen — the famous Blue City nestled in the mountains. Private crowd-free guided walk through the vibrant blue-washed alleyways with an architectural historian. The surreal tradition of blue buildings — introduced by Jewish refugees in the 15th century, symbolising heaven and spirituality. Unique Andalusian-influenced architecture, wool weaving, and leatherwork explained. Gourmet riad lunch. Evening drive to Rabat.

- Luxury Riad in the Blue City »

04

RABAT

Day 4 | The Imperial Capital of Rabat — Hassan Tower & Kasbah of the Udayas

Elegant city of palm-lined boulevards and historic monuments. The monumental Hassan Tower — a 12th-century minaret intended to be the world's largest mosque. The picturesque Kasbah of the Udayas: a 12th-century fortress with stunning views over the Bou Regreg River and Atlantic. Blue-and-white-washed Andalusian gardens. Elegant multi-course seafood bonfire dinner on a private terrace overlooking the river and ancient fortress walls.

- Ritz-Carlton Dar Es Salam »
- Breakfast, Dinner

05

RABAT

Day 5 | Floating Over the Atlantic Coastline — Coastal Palace Champagne Brunch

Rising before dawn for a hot-air balloon or helicopter flight drifting over historic ocean fortresses, coastal lagoons, and palatial gardens of the Atlantic shoreline. Breathtaking aerial views of Rabat — ancient fortifications, the meandering Bou Regreg River, and the lush royal palace gardens. After landing: a lavish champagne brunch set up on the terraced gardens of a historic coastal palace, surrounded by orange blossom scent and ocean sounds.

- Ritz-Carlton Dar Es Salam »
- Breakfast, Lunch

06

ESSAOUIRA

Day 6 | Drive to Essaouira — The Artist Coast

Scenic coastal drive south — fertile plains around Rabat giving way to the rugged windswept Atlantic coast. Passing small fishing villages, argan forests, and goats in trees. Arrival in Essaouira: a city of white-washed buildings with blue shutters where Atlantic winds create a constant refreshing breeze. Check-in at the stunning 19th-century Heure Bleue Palais overlooking the ocean. Gourmet fresh seafood dinner.

- Breakfast, Dinner

07

ESSAOUIRA

Day 7 | Sea Bastions, Thuya Wood & Contemporary Art Galleries

Exploring the imposing 18th-century sea bastions (Scala de la Ville) with rows of bronze cannons pointing out to the Atlantic — panoramic ocean and harbour views. The city's famous thuya wood-carving workshops: master craftsmen creating intricate boxes and furniture from fragrant local wood using techniques passed down through generations. Vibrant contemporary art galleries showcasing local painters inspired by the city's unique coastal light. Gourmet seaside lunch.

- Breakfast, Lunch

08

ESSAOUIRA

Day 8 | Coastal Serenity & Premium Moroccan Hammam Spa

A relaxed day enjoying the tranquil beach rhythms of Essaouira — waves, fresh Atlantic breeze, and the endless beach. Dedicated afternoon premium Moroccan hammam and spa experience: local organic rosewater and eucalyptus black soap, steam rooms, exfoliating scrubs, and relaxing massages. Private dinner at the hotel with the sound of the ocean as background.

09

ESSAOUIRA

Day 9 | Exclusive Gnaoua Musical & Heritage Tour

A deeply dignified cultural day with community elders and master musicians of the indigenous Gnaoua heritage. Learning about the deep spiritual history of this Afro-Moroccan musical culture — its roots in West African traditions, the hypnotic guembri (three-stringed lute), castanets, and chanting used in spiritual healing ceremonies. A private hypnotic performance of historic Gnaoua song and storytelling inside a private courtyard. Farewell multi-course dinner at Heure Bleue Palais paired with vintage wines.
