Overview

The ultimate East African island and safari romance — engineered for high-end couples who want to experience Zanzibar's most sought-after island icons and then land at the foot of Africa's tallest mountain for a wildlife finale unlike any other. Spending the first half of the expedition wrapped in the chic beach-club atmosphere, floating pool lounges, and wild dolphin bays of Le Saint Tropez Zanzibar, guests then fly directly to Kilimanjaro to stay at Serval Wildlife Resort — where rescued free-roaming giraffes, lions, and zebras walk directly up to the private villa suites against the monumental backdrop of snow-capped Mount Kilimanjaro. A hot-air balloon over the West Kilimanjaro plains and a private Maasai cultural encounter close one of the finest couple's journeys available in East Africa.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Stone Town rooftop candle-lit dinner overlooking old minarets in the Sultanate Ocean Suite at Park Hyatt Zanzibar
- Dawn dhow dolphin safari: wild bottlenose and humpback dolphins surfacing alongside the vessel in Kizimkazi Bay
- Ocean floor Sea Walk: walking hand-in-hand on the barrier reef with neon parrotfish and blue-spotted rays at eye level
- Serval Wildlife Resort: rescued free-roaming Masai giraffes, lions, and zebras walking up to your villa terrace at Kilimanjaro
- Kizimkazi floating pool lounges sundowner: French champagne and local spiced canapés on private pool floats as the sun drops into the sea
- Disappearing sandbar white-linen breakfast buffet: dining in absolute privacy as the tide rises slowly around your table
- The Rock Restaurant private crowd-free lunch: waves at the window in the most iconic dining setting in all of East Africa
- Hot-air balloon or helicopter over the West Kilimanjaro plains: wildlife in golden grasslands with a snow-capped peak behind
